The Glamorous Russian Tea Room, www.russiantearoomnyc.com, is hosting the Hudson Union Society's Raquel Welch Event on April 2nd, 2010 at 12:00pm. The event will be held in the ballroom of the legendary facility, starting with an entertaining, conversational style interview by Joe Pascal, the Hudson Union Society's director, followed by a 30 minute question and answer. A cash bar will be available for guests, and after the program guests are welcome to try some of the traditional Russian delicacies in the main dining room.

This will be tenth Hudson Union Society event hosted by the Russian Tea Room, having hosted such notables as David Lynch and Jesse Ventura since September of 2009. "We really love the Hudson Union Society Events," says Ken Biberaj, Vice President of the Tea Room. "It allows normal people to interact with big stars. We think the Tea Room is a perfect, elegant setting for this style of function."

The Hudson Union Society's Director, Joe Pascal, couldn't be happier. "We really love the setting, there's no place like it in the city, our members and guests of honor are always blown away." says Pascal "and we are looking forward to a long standing relationship with the Tea Room." The Hudson Union Society, www.hudsonunionsociety.com is a non profit organization whose intent is to spurn debate using well known actors, writers, and nobel prize winners as a catalyst. "We bring today's leaders to discuss tomorrows ideas with an eye to the future," says Mr. Pascal.
